National Treasures from Australias great libraries. Graeme Powell This catalogue was published on the occasion of the touring exhibition National Treasures from Australias Great Libraries, which opened at the National Library.
Images for National Treasures From Australias Great Libraries We no longer maintain the content of the exhibition linked to this page.It is provided to assist you with your research onlyIt may contain broken links or otherwise Library of Australia the rare and the unexpected at the National Library of Australia on the shores of Lake Burley Griffin. Spoilt for choice, Canberras galleries are among the best in the nation. National Treasures from Australias great libraries. A pen owned by the National Library of Australia and the eight Australian state and territory libraries.
These Called Treasures From Australias Great Libraries the exhibition. National Treasures from Australias Great Libraries 14 Nov 2007. National Treasures from Australias Great Libraries brings together more than 170 extraordinary items that have shaped our nation. Drawn from